

NEW SECTION OF HSE WEBSITE DEDICATED TO HEALTH AND SAFETY IN THE STORAGE AND WAREHOUSING INDUSTRY

The Health & Safety Executive (HSE) has developed a new section of its website dedicated to Health and Safety in the storage and warehousing industry. This new section provides advice and useful links to relevant guidance documents designed to prevent workplace accidents.

The new section also provides up to date information regarding the work of the Warehousing Health and Safety forum of which the British Frozen food Federation is an active member.

The direct link to the site is as follows: www.hse.gov.uk/warehousing/index.htm
