GOLD WINNING CHICKEN LIVER PATE WITH SCOTTISH HEATHER HONEY FROM BAR AND RESTAURANT FOODS LTD.

At a Presentation Ceremony which was held at a Gala Dinner Dance at the London Hilton Hotel on the 14th June, the British Frozen Food Federation announced that the winner of the Best New Starter/Buffer/Appetiser Product Category of the Catering Sector for 2007 is CHICKEN LIVER PATE WITH SCOTTISH HEATHER HONEY from BAR AND RESTAURANT FOODS LTD.

The gold winning product is smooth chicken liver pate laced with heather honey from the Galloway hills. Supplied in individual portions with a smooth appearance with visual flecks. This delicious product was described by one of our catering judges as being "nice smooth tasting pate, easily served". "Nice honey taste in background".

The Silver Award goes this year to Loxton Foods Ltd. with their Derbyshire Ham & Mature Cheddar Potato Cake. The product contains grated potato and diced Derbyshire smoked ham bound with mature cheddar and mozzarella cheese. For best results the product should be pan fried from frozen on a medium heat turning often until golden brown.

One of our judges described the product as “very good flavour of ham and cheese, rustic interior which is good to see”.

The Bronze Award has been won by The Italian Cake Company Ltd. with their product “Buoni e Pronti” Piadina al Carciofi. The product is a piadina wrap filled with ricotta and emmental, artichoke cream and cooked ham. This versatile product is convenient for caterers with a cooking time only six minutes from frozen.
